

WAYout WORLDWIDE ARTS FOR YOUTH GDPR PRIVACY POLICY

BACKGROUND:

WAYout Worldwide Arts for Youth (WAYout) understands that your privacy is important to you and that you care about how your personal data is used and shared online. We respect and value the privacy of everyone who visits this website, www.wayoutarts.org ("Our Site") and will only collect and use personal data in ways that are described here, and in a manner that is consistent with Our obligations and your rights under the law.

Please read this Privacy Policy carefully and ensure that you understand it. Your acceptance of Our Privacy Policy is deemed to occur upon your first use of Our Site. If you do not accept and agree to this Privacy Policy, you must stop using Our Site immediately.

1. Definitions and Interpretation

In this Policy, the following terms shall have the following meanings:

"personal data" means any and all data that relates to an identifiable person who can be directly or indirectly identified from that data. In this case, it means personal data that you give to Us via Our Site. This definition shall, where applicable, incorporate the definitions provided in the EU Regulation 2016/679 – the General Data Protection Regulation ("GDPR"); and

"We/Us/Our" means WAYout Worldwide Arts for Youth, a registered charity in England & Wales under Charity number 1123777, whose registered address is 25 Newquay House, Sancroft Street, London SE11 5UN.

2. Information About Us

Our Site is owned and operated by WAYout, a registered charity in England & Wales under charity number 1123777, whose registered address is 25 Newquay House, Sancroft Street, London SE11 5UN.

Our Registered Charity no. is 1123777.

Our registered Data Protection Officer "DPO", Hazel Chandler, and can be contacted by email at hazel@wayoutarts.org or by post at 25 Newquay House, Sancroft Street, London SE11 5UN. We are regulated by the Charity Commission, UK.

3. What Does This Policy Cover?

This Privacy Policy applies only to your use of Our Site and our newsletter. Our Site may contain links to other websites. Please note that We have no control over how your data is collected, stored, or used by other websites and We advise you to check the privacy policies of any such websites before providing any data to them.

4. Your Rights

As a data subject (horrible term but that what the GDPR call it), you have the following rights under the GDPR, which this Policy and Our use of personal data have been designed to uphold:

The right to be informed about Our collection and use of personal data;

The right of access to the personal data We hold about you (see section 12);

The right to rectification if any personal data We hold about you is inaccurate or incomplete (please contact Us using the details in section 13);

The right to be forgotten – i.e. the right to ask Us to delete any personal data We hold about you (We only hold your personal data for a limited time, as explained in section 6 but if you would like Us to delete it sooner, please contact Us using the details in section 13);

The right to restrict (i.e. prevent) the processing of your personal data;
The right to data portability (obtaining a copy of your personal data to re-use with another service or organisation);
The right to object to Us using your personal data for particular purposes; and Rights with respect to automated decision making and profiling.

If you have any cause for complaint about Our use of your personal data, please contact Us using the details provided in section 13 and We will do Our best to solve the problem for you. If We are unable to help, you also have the right to lodge a complaint with the UK's supervisory authority, the Information Commissioner's Office.

For further information about your rights, please contact the Information Commissioner's Office or your local Citizens Advice Bureau.

5. What Data Do We Collect?

Depending on your use of Our Site, and a subscription to our email newsletter, donations received, We may collect some or all of the following personal [and non-personal] data:

name (if you subscribe to receive updates via email, enter a promotion, make a donation, or purchase from our online store, managed by BSI Merchandise);

business/company name (if provided by you);

job title (if provided by you);

profession (if provided by you);

contact information such as email addresses and telephone numbers (if provided by you);

demographic information such as postcode, preferences, and interests (if provided by you);

financial information such as credit/debit card numbers (if provided by you);

IP address;

web browser type and version;

operating system;

a list of URLs starting with a referring site, your activity on Our Site, and the site you exit to;

6. How Do We Use Your Data?

All personal data is processed and stored securely, for no longer than is necessary in light of the reason(s) for which it was first collected. We will comply with Our obligations and safeguard your rights under the GDPR at all times. For more details on security see section 7, below.

Our use of your personal data will always have a lawful basis, either because it is necessary for Our performance of a contract with you, because you have consented to Our use of your personal data (e.g. by subscribing to emails), or because it is in Our legitimate interests. Specifically, We may use your data for the following purposes:

Supplying Our products and services to you (please note that We require your personal data in order to enter into a contract with you);

Replying to emails from you;

Supplying you with information via emails that you have opted into (you may unsubscribe or opt-out at any time by clicking on the link in every email update we ever send);

With your permission and/or where permitted by law, We may also use your data for marketing purposes which may include contacting you by email or post with information, news, and offers on Our fundraising campaigns and new merchandise releases. We will not, however, send you any unsolicited marketing or spam and will take all reasonable steps to ensure that We fully protect your rights and comply with Our obligations under the GDPR and the Privacy and Electronic Communications (EC Directive) Regulations 2003.

You have the right to withdraw your consent to Us using your personal data at any time, and to request that We delete it.

We do not keep your personal data for any longer than is necessary in light of the reason(s) for which it was first collected. Data will therefore be retained for the following periods (or its retention will be determined on the following bases):

until you request to be unsubscribed from our email updates;

7. How and Where Do We Store Your Data?

We only keep your personal data for as long as We need to in order to use it as described above in section 6, and/or for as long as We have your permission to keep it.

Your data will only be stored in the UK.

Data security is very important to Us, and to protect your data We have taken suitable measures to safeguard and secure data collected through Our Site.

Steps We take to secure and protect your data include:

we use SSL encrypted & registered email service provider, Pedeco and Gmail.

All purchases of our fundraising merchandise & donations are made and collected using SSL encrypted websites 'mydonate' and 'paypal'.

8. Do We Share Your Data?

Subject to section 8.2, We will not share any of your data with any third parties for any purposes. In certain circumstances, We may be legally required to share certain data held by Us, which may include your personal data, for example, where We are involved in legal proceedings, where We are complying with legal obligations, a court order, or a governmental authority.

9. How Can You Control Your Data?

In addition to your rights under the GDPR, set out in section 4, when you submit personal data via Our Site, you may be given options to restrict Our use of your data. In particular, We aim to give you strong controls on Our use of your data for direct marketing purposes (including the ability to opt-out of receiving emails from Us which you may do by unsubscribing using the links provided in Our emails and at the point of providing your details).

You may also wish to sign up to one or more of the preference services operating in the UK: The Telephone Preference Service ("the TPS"), the Corporate Telephone Preference Service ("the CTPS"), and the Mailing Preference Service ("the MPS"). These may help to prevent you receiving unsolicited marketing. Please note, however, that these services will not prevent you from receiving marketing communications that you have consented to receive.

10. Your Right to Withhold Information

You may access Our Site without providing any data at all.

11. How Can You Access Your Data?

You have the right to ask for a copy of any of your personal data held by Us (where such data is held). Under the GDPR, no fee is payable and We will provide any and all information in response to your request free of charge. Please contact Us for more details at info@joestrummerfoundation.org.

12. Contacting Us

If you have any questions about Our Site or this Privacy Policy, please contact Us by email at info@wayoutarts.org, by telephone on +44 (0) 207 7091 0162 or 07989414007, or by post at 25 Newquay House, Sancroft Street, London SE11 5UN.

Please ensure that your query is clear, particularly if it is a request for information about the data We hold about you (as laid out above).

13. Changes to Our Privacy Policy

We may change this Privacy Policy from time to time (for example, if the law changes). Any changes will be immediately posted on Our Site and you will be deemed to have accepted the terms of the Privacy Policy on your first use of Our Site following the alterations. We recommend that you check this page regularly to keep up-to-date.
